

Don't forget the DEADline

Nominate a member for a prestigious FAAR award!

Is there an agent who stands out because of their involvement in FAAR and VAR and NAR?

Know a manager who does an excellent job training agents?

Know an agent that is great to work with in a transaction?

Been impressed by a new agent who has been successful and involved in FAAR in their 1st year in the business?

An agent who displays great FAAR spirit?... exhibits great professionalism... an agent who is very involved in the community... an affiliate who contributes to the success of FAAR?

Fall Awards will be given at the installation event in December
Deadline: October 31 Applications online at www.faarmembers.com/awards

Raising the Bar

Criteria for this award include: General interest in subject of REALTOR® professional standards; availability and willingness to counsel and advise individual REALTORS®, brokers, and sales associates on real estate problems; presentations on ethics before FAAR and other Associations; service on Grievance and/or Professional Standards Committee.

Affiliate of the Year

Criteria for this award include: Must be an Affiliate member of FAAR, provided exceptional service to FAAR, its members and the general public, exhibited unusual dedication to the real estate profession, shown a high degree of Association participation, as well as activity in civic affairs.

Good Neighbor Award

This award is intended to recognize individuals who have given significant contribution of time or other resources contributions to the local community. The efforts do not have to be real estate related. Will be awarded based on a level of personal contributions, broadness of impact, and the project's suitability as a role model for other association members.

Hall of Fame

Criteria for this award include: length of membership in FAAR; elective offices held and committees on which served; areas in which nominee served the real estate industry through involvement with NAR and VAR committees. Nominations may come from Board of Directors or Awards Committee.

Silver Circle and REALTOR® Emeritus

Automatically awarded to those REALTOR® members after 25 and 40 years of continuous membership in FAAR

Spirit Award

The Spirit Award recipient motivates others, through enthusiasm and participation, to attend events. The recipient may serve on a committee or just answers the call for help. The recipient is reliable and shows up! An eligible recipient can also be a more reserved person who quietly takes on tasks- transporting props to events, participating in the set-up, tear down and clean up without fanfare

NEW in 2018!

Icon Award

The honor is awarded to a REALTOR® who has made a significant mark on the profession of real estate in the locality where he or she works. The Nominee's name is recognizable to the community at large and is synonymous with exemplary ethical behavior and knowledgeable and compassionate service to clients and customers. The individual is highly respected by the REALTOR® community. The Nominee is generous with his or her time supporting community organizations/projects/programs.
