Melanie Thompson Award

Application for Award

New qualifications

This award is designed to recognize leadership by a young REALTOR® who is making a notable difference and/or positive impact in their profession and in the community, that is simply above and beyond the norm. (Recognition is not open to affiliates)

The award was created to honor Melanie Thompson, who at a very young age, dedicated herself to becoming successful in her career through exceptional, professional service to clients and customers and dedicated service to the REALTOR® community and the community at large.

Young is defined as 39 and under and in the real estate profession under 7 years.

Please complete the following application and return to FAAR before February 16, 2019. The nominees will be judged on the application and a short narrative about the nominee's achievements that are in the spirit of Melanie Thompson's career.

The Award will not necessarily be a yearly award.

All activities must occur between January 1, 2018 and December 31, 2018, (with the exception of designations held).

Application deadline- February 16, 2019. Send application to Pat Breme at pbreme@faarmembers.com.

No Application fee

Please provide a narrative on the applicant's qualification based on the following:

Successful in their career through exceptional, professional service to clients and customers and dedicated service to the REALTOR® community and the community at large.
