If you like, we can match you up with a committee or you may select from the list provided. Check off the groups you are interested in joining.

Education and Professional Development Committee

Coordinates education programs for FAAR including trending topics, designation courses and continuing education offerings. Policy maker for the FAAR Academy. Seeks instructors and facilitators from the membership. Group meets monthly.
Contact: Barbara Castillo, bcastillo@faarmembers.com

Public Policy/RPAC Committee

Monitors issues affecting home ownership and the real estate industry. Establishes relationships with area legislators. The RPAC sub group raises the awareness of the importance of RPAC and spearheads fundraising activities. Meets monthly.
Contact: Kim McClellan, kmcclellan@faarmembers.com

Communication and Technology Committee

This group discusses and evaluates how agents can use technology to strengthen their business and oversees the association's communication plan. This committee also monitors FAAR's website for usability and effectiveness and advises FAAR staff on technology upgrades to the office. Meets monthly followed by an open workshop called "Tech Time."
Contact: Lauren Zuza, lzuza@faarmembers.com

Awards Committee

Establishes awards criteria and reviews applications. The program of awards recognizes a member's professionalism, association and community involvement and encourages members to become active in FAAR. Meets twice a year.

Get Involved

__ Community Service Committee

Represents REALTORS® through performing good works for the community. For example, making dinners at the Homeless Shelter, sponsoring a tour house in the annual Fredericksburg Candlelight Tour, Secret Santa Christmas gift giving, working on Habitat for Humanity fundraising events. Meets monthly.

Contact: Lauren Zuza, lzuza@faarmembers.com

__ Young Professionals Network (YPN)

Works to promote professional relationships among young real estate professionals or those new to real estate and to support the REALTOR® community now and in the future. Facilitates exchange of ideas in a social setting; offers educational opportunities. Assists FAAR to identify and engage future leaders. Serves the community through volunteer work to enhance the REALTOR® visibility and image. Meets monthly.

__ Property Management Working Group

Focuses on agents who do property management/leasing. Alternates meeting format with round table discussions and educational presentations. Meets every other month.

Contact: Kim McClellan, kmcclellan@faarmembers.com

__ Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee This committee examines the diversity of the association and address areas where inclusion is lacking. The work of the Committee is to foster an intentional mindset of inclusion by creating a welcoming environment through personal outreach, activities, and educational opportunities. The result of this focus will enhance the process of seeking future leaders.

Governance

__ Grievance __ Professional Standards

Grievance reviews ethics complaints and requests for arbitration from agents and the public and determines whether they merit a hearing. The group also administers the Citation System. Panels of Professional Standards members hold hearings to determine whether violations of the Code of Ethics have occurred or to resolve procuring cause issues. Membership on either group requires an annual training session and three years' experience as an agent. Caseload dictates meetings. Training to be a mediator or an ombudsman is available. Separate application required.

Contact: Barbara Castillo, bcastillo@faarmembers.com

__ Budget & Finance/Investment

Meets 2-3 times a year to formulate the annual association budget and to address financial issues. The Committee reviews FAAR investments to make recommendations to the BOD for enhancement of the portfolio. Composed of the Executive Committee or by appointment.

Contact: Page Browning, pbrowning@faarmembers.com,

__ Nominating

Interviews potential candidates for Board of Directors positions. Membership dictated by the Bylaws.

__ Fredericksburg REALTOR® Foundation

Provides grants to local charitable organizations whose clients struggle with hardships that threaten their ability to secure and retain shelter. The Board of Directors appoints the Governors for a three-year term. Membership is encouraged to apply when positions become vacant. The Foundation's mission is to assist local housing related area agencies and programs. Meets monthly. Separate application required.
